ALLAN BROWNING COMMENDATION

WHEREAS, Allan Browning, the 2002-2003 President of the Tustin Chamber of Commerce, focused his administration on enhancing and developing the needs of our local businesses; and

WHEREAS, he combined a clear understanding of the value the Chamber brings to the business community as well as advocating and communicating the needs of businesses to local, state, and federal government representatives and the community at-large; and

WHEREAS, during his tenure, Allan has distinguished himself through his competent and committed representation of the business community, and he has thus contributed toward improving the economic stability of our community; and

NOW, THEREFORE, the City Council of the City of Tustin, California, wishes to recognize the exceptional service of Allan Browning, President of the Tustin Chamber of Commerce, and hereby affix our signatures this 27th day of June, 2003.
