CHAMBER INSTALLS NEW BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Annual Installation Dinner has developed a well-earned reputation for being a festive, gala affair. This year's edition added to that tradition. Members and guests were treated a spectacular view and to an evening of socializing, dining, dancing high atop the local hills. Held once again at the beautiful Orange Hill Restaurant on June 22, the evening's events honored the outgoing Board of Directors and installed the 2001-2002 Board.

Board members receive the oath of Office from City Manager Bill Huston

Angie Kardashian was an elegant emcee. The new Board was sworn in by Tustin City Manager Bill Huston and officially started its duties July 1. The Executive Committee is comprised of Jack Shafer, President; Allan Browning, President-Elect; Mary Hill, Secretary; Don Shubin, Chief Financial Officer; and Lou Bone, Past President. The Directors are Dr. Art Francis, John Jansen, Karol Reedy, Mary Rimmer, Carol Spear, Mike Stafford, Dr. Jay Weber and Judy Woolen.

The evening also honored Ceil Kirby Morgan, outgoing President, who steered the Chamber through a year of significant membership growth and Board activism.

The Tustin Man and Woman of the Year Awards were also presented during the evening's program. Todd Ferguson, nominated by Kiwanis Club of Tustin, was named Man of the Year for 2000, while Loretta Robinson, nominated by Tustin Area Council for Fine Arts garnered Woman of the Year for 2000 honors.

Entertainment for the evening was provided by Black Tie Events, which was sponsored by The Market Place. The Ruffled Tulip provided the spectacularly creative flower arrangements, while Tustin Community Foundation was the program sponsor.
